

Stores and Businesses Sponsored Summer Reading Programs

- Barnes & Noble – Imagination Destination - Kids earn a free book from a pre-selected list when they read any eight books, log them in a reading journal, and turn in the journal to any Barnes & Noble location between May 20 and September 2, 2014. Download your reading journal (PDF).
- Books A Million – Read any 6 books on the Summer Reading Form between May 19- Aug.
- Chuck E. Cheese's -- Download a Reading Rewards Chart (they have many different ones to choose from and it is a year-round program), read every day for two weeks and redeem your chart for 10 free tokens. You must purchase food to get these free tokens. Take it or leave it... at least they have air conditioning!
- H.E.Buddy Summer Reading Club -- Pick up a form from H-E-B, log ten books that your child has read and mail the form in to get a prize! I know my kids love getting mail and your kids will too.
- Half Price Books -- The Feed Your Brain program offers $5 Back to School Bucks to kids who have read a total of 300 minutes in a month's time. Parents may read to kids who are still learning. One Top Reader from each age group, per store, will win a $20 HPB gift card. Must be 14 years of age or under to participate. Download a printable reading log. HPB Bookworm Bucks coupons are valid through August 27, 2014 only. Visit a store near you on Sunday, June 8 at 2 p.m. for the Biggest Story Time of the Summer! To find a store near you, visit the HPB website. This was one of our favorite programs every year!
- Pizza Hut Summer reading program- They offer fun prizes for reading books and the program begins June 1.
- Pottery Barn Summer Reading Challenge -- Now through July 31, when you read any eight titles from the Summer Reading Challenge book list you receive a free book, while supplies last.
- Washington Redskins Summer Reading Program -- As part of the program, every 10 minutes a student reads equals a yard and 100 reading minutes equal a touchdown. Students who read the most can win prizes, classes can win a visit with writers as well as an addition to the school library. There is amongst students and classrooms. The school with the greatest participation will actually be treated to a Washington Redskins rally in September.
- TD Bank Summer Reading Program 2014 - When your child completes the TD Bank summer reading program, they'll get $10 free! Kids will need to read 10 books and have a new or existing Young Savers account at a TD Bank to get this deal. This summer reading program runs June 1 - August 31

Online Summer Reading Programs

- iRead - iREAD summer reading programming includes activities, graphics, crafts, reading lists, incentives, and much more for children, teens, and adults.
- Scholastic Summer Challenge -- Kids from birth to age 12 can log their reading minutes, earn prizes, and take part in an attempt to read for the world record! Of course you register online at the Scholastic website for this free program.
- Book Adventure by Sylvan – Fun and FREE! Get your kids in grades K-8 reading and watch the fun start as they search for books, read them offline, come back to quiz on what they've read, and earn prizes for their reading success.
- New York Times Summer Reading Contest -- Each week, June 13 through August 15, teenagers age 13 to 19 years old are invited to choose any piece (article, photo, video) in The New York Times and write to tell why it interested them, whether they loved or hated it. The blog will choose a weekly winner to feature.
